ORDER

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The plaintiff has met the requirement for effecting service through alternative means pursuant to the New York State Statute. See N.Y. C.P.L.R. §§ 308(5), 311(b); see also Restoration Hardware, Inc. v. Lighting Design Wholesalers, Inc., No. 17-cv-5553, 2020 WL 4497160, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 5, 2020), report and recommendation adopted, No. 17-cv-5553, 2020 WL 7093592 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 4, 2020).

Accordingly, the plaintiff may serve the Summons, Complaint, and all other pleadings and papers in this action upon defendant Goodman d/b/a 21st Century 3D d/b/a CrowdSource The Truth by sending the Summons and Amended Complaint, and a copy of this Order, by electronic mail to the email address for the defendant listed in the plaintiff's October 10, 2023 submission.

As to the status of service on the other defendants -- Corean Elizabeth Stoughton, Alphabet, Inc., and X Corp. -- the plaintiff is directed to update this Court on the status of service on the defendants by October 26, 2023. The plaintiff is advised that if assistance is needed, the plaintiff may contact NYLAG.

The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order to the pro se plaintiff and note service on the docket.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: New York, New York

Services Provided for Self-Represented Litigants in the Southern District of New York

The NYLAG Legal Clinic for Pro Se Litigants in the Southern District of New York provides free limited legal assistance to individuals who are representing themselves or planning to represent themselves in civil lawsuits in federal court in Manhattan and White Plains. The clinic is staffed by attorneys, law students, and paralegals. Information given to clinic staff is confidential.

Clinic Staff Can:

- Advise on filing cases in federal court, including on the issue of whether a case should be filed in the Southern District of New York or somewhere else;
- Provide legal advice in response to questions that come up at any stage of litigation;
- Assist in getting additional information or research into the legal issue in your case;
- Review and explain court orders and filings by your opponent, and provide an overview of the federal legal process in civil cases generally;
- Assist with motions, discovery, and strategy;
- Assist with getting ready for depositions, pretrial conferences, mediations, and court appearances;
- Provide forms and instructions manuals;
- In appropriate cases, help you retain pro bono counsel;
- In appropriate cases, represent you in a mediation through the Southern District's Alternative Dispute Resolution Program, or a court-ordered settlement conference;
- In appropriate cases, represent you at a deposition; and
- In appropriate cases, provide referrals to other agencies and organizations that provide civil legal services and/or social services.

Use of the NYLAG Legal Clinic for Pro Se Litigants is separate from any appointment of counsel by the court. A request for appointment of counsel requires a separate application and the decision whether to appoint counsel is entirely up to the court. Even if a litigant has consulted with Clinic staff, unless they retain other counsel and that counsel enters a notice of appearance, they remain unrepresented; are responsible for doing whatever is necessary in connection with the case; and must still submit all court papers to the Pro Se Intake Unit, located in Room 105 of the Daniel Patrick Moynihan Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, New York, or by following the court's instructions for filing via email as a pro se litigant.

Clinic Staff Cannot:

- Assist with federal civil cases that belong in a different federal court, such as the Eastern District of New York, which covers New York, which covers Brooklyn, Queens, Staten Island, and Nassau and Suffolk Counties;
- Assist with an appeal of your federal case;
- Assist with state court cases, bankruptcy court cases, or criminal cases;
- Pay any of the costs associated with filing or defending a lawsuit in federal court;
- File documents with the court on your behalf;
- Appear on your behalf other than representation at a mediation through the Southern District's Alternative Dispute Resolution Program, a court-ordered settlement conference, or, in appropriate cases, a deposition;
- Write court documents for you; or
- Conduct an investigation into the facts of your case.

Clinic Staff May Decline Assistance If:

- NYLAG has already given advice to your opponent;
- Your legal problem is beyond the scope of matters handled by the clinic;
- Providing assistance would conflict with the New York Rules of Professional Conduct;
- Your income and/or assets are high enough to allow you to retain private counsel; or
- NYLAG determines, in its professional legal judgement, that (i) you have refused to cooperate with the Clinic's counsel or follow the Clinic's advice; (ii) any assistance would be unreasonably difficult for NYLAG to carry out; or (iii) your case is or will become frivolous, unreasonable, groundless, or without merit.
